

Tuition Rate for Illinois Resident Students
UMSL

The University of Missouri-St. Louis (UMSL) is requesting a new tuition rate for undergraduate students who are residents of Illinois. This is an underdeveloped market area for UMSL and one they believe will help stabilize their enrollment and financial position with little financial risk. The new rate will be known as the Illinois undergraduate tuition rate and will be always be greater than or equal to the Missouri resident undergraduate rate.

This new tuition rate will be re-evaluated after five years and will be eliminated or the Board will be asked to renew the rate for another five years.

The campus is requesting the rate for FY2018 to be set equal to the Missouri resident undergraduate tuition rate.
